To Whom It May Concern (Refer to distribution list overleaf)

Subject: The proposed Cullinan Estate development
Release of the Draft Environmental Impact Report for I&AP review

The Draft Environmental Impact Report (EIR) for the proposed development of the Cullinan Estate is now available to registered interested and affected parties (I&AP's) for review and comment. The Phase II public participation process can now commence.

The EIR, incorporating all specialist and technical information relevant to this project will be available for a 30 day period from 27 August 2008 until 25 September 2008. Please submit your written feedback (comments and concerns) before 25 September 2008 in order to ensure that these are noted/processed before final submission of the application to the Gauteng Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Environment.

The EIR will be made available as follows:

- Posted at the Cullinan Tourism Information Office. Please contact Martie Kruger on 012 734 1111 to arrange a viewing.
- An electronic copy of the EIR and specialist information is available to download from the Marsh website: www.marsh-africa.com/sector/environment/CullinanEstate.htm

A public meeting to present the findings of the EIR will be held at the Cullinan Rec Club (Burns' Dec and Jac's Bar) on Wednesday, 10 September 2008. Time 18:00.

Please contact the undersigned with any queries.

Sincerely,

Steven Ingle
Environmental Consultant
